Who We Are

We are Muyol Willka Hampi (meaning 'Sacred Wheel Medicine' in Quechua), a non-profit organization and alternative community of 20 permanent members, living sustainably together in the Sacred Valley of the Andes, Peru. We provide programs to sustain the appearance of conscious leaders who can initiate inter-connected communities and projects guided by ancestral wisdom.

Our culturally diverse group is comprised of members trained in various areas of life - from teachers to bio-chemists to artists. Our research and practices are informed by a deep collective ceremonial process dedicated to bring ancestral wisdom to its modern application. We discover together the mystic arts and sciences of life through the dynamic of circle and the guidance we receive in ceremony and daily life.

Philosophical Base

We work on the universal archetypical structure of life called the Sacred Wheel, related to the dynamic of time illustrated by the spiral. Rooted in all ancestral tradition, it teaches us the sacred path of life and awakens consciousness of Life's finality to come to perfect harmony as eternal beings. Working with this mystic structure, we can recover the original knowledge of humanity, being guided by Divine Mother Nature to serve life as healthy individuals and collectives.

Our Lineage

Two branches of our unique lineage are the Vedic tradition of India, and the Red Path of the Americas - namely the Piaroa of the Venezuelan Amazonas. These paths have been united under the official recognition of masters of these traditions for the common purpose of bring a new golden age of humanity.

Our ceremonies are always given by a medicine team that works in circle consciousness.

Our Medicine Connection

We work with sacred plants in a traditional way based on the structure and dynamic of circle (or clan) . We understand that the first purpose of medicine is to awaken our true utility to serve life, which consequently heals us from our conditionings inherited from society.

Our medicine connection guides us to identify root sicknesses at the subconscious level of humanity. From this, we call for the integration of healthy structures that can initiate a process of healing.

Our Community Founder & Elder

Sri Gopal Das, born in France, initiated into the sacred path through the Vedic tradition of India & the Red Path of the Americas. Guided by the sacred medicines, he developed a formation center of the mystic arts and sciences to form leaders and medicine people who can serve a real global change.

Teaching the value of circle consciousness, he has united a thriving community based on the Sacred Wheel and traditional clan structure. For the last 20 years, Gopal and his circle have been developing a unique collective ceremonial process and methodology at service to the global awakening. In addition to philosophy and psychology, his other specialties include a unique connection with the medicines of the West (heyoka, the coyote) and helping inspiring medicine people to connect with the internal, mystic aspect of the sacred chants.

Programs are means to enter into the sacred space of the circle, initiating a process of awakening the best potentiality of our lives

Our Programs

Our programs seek to unite all aspects of our lives - family, community, profession, and interests of study – as an integral way to serve Mother Nature and all of Her children.

They provide a space to encounter circle dynamic, being guided by Spirit, step by step, to discover a new vision about reality. This brings a reprogramming of our subconscious way of relating to life, and aligns our capacity to manifest practical actions.

Themes discussed are based on the observation of what appears in our daily personal life, community and greater world.

What makes our Programs Unique?

Programs present ancestral wisdom of the Sacred Wheel to practically address concerns of the modern age...

Incorporate medicine ceremonies to awaken consciousness of shamanism as a mystical path of leadership potential...

Created and lead by members of our medicine community, who specialize in different sectors (shamanism, ecology, natural medicine etc.), and are guided by an authentic spiritual lineage to awaken our primordial vision of life...

Offer a philosophical vision and practical guidance to develop self-sufficient projects and clan enterprises, constituting a weaving of healthy cells for a new society...

Accompany people to find their unique way to participate in a sector or project that can serve the expansion of the global ecological movement...

What do our programs include?

• Traditional Plant Medicine Ceremonies:

are not an isolated experience, but are integrated as a unique element of a comprehensive program. There is always a deep process of working together in circle before and after the ceremony.

Working with sacred plants of the indigenous lands of Peru and the druids, we encounter a common prayer together, defined by the clarity we encounter during the course of the program.

• Classes & Workshops on the Sacred Medicine Wheel, Shamanism & Leadership, Circle Dynamics, Psychology & Philosophy of our Ancestors, Spiritual Ecology, Global Strategy, Personal & Project Development, & more...

All classes are based on the universal and philosophical base of the Sacred Wheel, permitting us to awaken consciousness of reality beyond our social conditioning, and access the hidden knowledge of our ancestors in all fields of life in the present. Classes develop and expand in a thread of continuity and find a more profound sense in ceremony.

Food & Accommodation: we are working encounter the best locations to sustain programs with the natural, raw and beautiful presence of Mother Nature. We seek accommodation which can provide sufficient comfort to be able to center on our work together.

Our programs are always accompanied with a special vedic diet to ensure the highest connection with medicine in front of our priest fire. This means we recommend to prepare for this diet beforehand, eliminating all meat, fish, poultry and eggs from you diet priori starting a program with us. We also strongly recommend doing the same for all drugs (including marijuana) and alcohol, in order to start the purifying process ahead of time and encounter the best medicine in ceremony.
